

New Westminster Public Library Policy Manual

Section:	General	Policy Number	A8
Policy Title	Conduct in the Library	Approval Date:	April 22, 2014
		Revision Date:

All people using library facilities, collections and services are expected to behave in a reasonable manner.

The Library Board may deny access to the library facility to anyone who:

- destroys Library property;
- disturbs other patrons and restricts their right to quiet enjoyment of the Library;
- exhibits objectionable conduct or inappropriate behavior in the Library;
- commits an offence requiring police intervention; or,
- attempts to steal Library material.

The decision to deny access may be delegated by the Board to the Chief Librarian or other Library staff.
